GREENVILLE

Farwell Party for Miss Leontine

Cayouette. To Study Music in Canada—Shade Trees Set Out in St.

Joseph's Cemetery—Personals.

On Tuesday evening at her home on 11th street Miss Leontine Cayouette was given a farewell party as she is to study music in Canada this year.

There were about 15 friends present and the evening was passed very pleasantly. There were instrumental and vocal selections and refreshments were served. The party came to an end at a late hour all voting Miss Cayouette a delightful hostess and wishing her success in her studies.

Miss Mary Fox, Miss Margaret Shea,

Miss Eaton and Montclair Ethier were in charge of the arrangements. Miss

day afternoon.

Young Shade Trees Set Out.

A number of young shade trees have been set out in the new St. Joseph's cemetery on Boswell avenue.

Switch Broken.

The barn switch on Central avenue has been broken for some days and a switchman is working there to see that the cars pass over safely.

A party of Greenville people enjoyed a sail down the river Wednesday evening in a large launch.

Miss Annie Raymond is spending several days at Fishers Island, N. Y.

Michael Podanai caught a two-pound bass at the Preston City pond this week.

Emory Sullivan of North Main street has returned after spending a few days in camp at the shore.

After passing three months visiting in Montreal and other Canadian points Alec LeBlanc has returned to Greenville.

TAFTVILLE AFFAIRS

Plans for the Annual Field Day of

T. P. C. Underway Committee Appointed and Fine Programme Arranged—Local Personals and Notes.

Plans for the annual field day of the Taftville Pinnacles club are well underway the committee has been appointed and the date has been set. As in past years it is to be held on the Providence street grounds and the race course will be put in first class condition in the near future. An unusually fine athletic programme has been arranged and the prizes to be awarded the winners were placed in one of the large show windows of the Taftville Pharmacy by William Chamberlain and Fred Stone on Wednesday Evening are free and those wishing to compete will be notified after by Martin J. Waldron the secretary. The committee in charge of the field day consists of William Chamberlain, chairman, Martin Waldron, J. J. Donovan, Daniel Shea, and W. H. Baldwin.

Arrival of Mail Uncertain.

Owing to the war German mail is being received at the local office very irregularly. A bag of German mail arrived here Monday.

Persons and Notes.

Albert Lante and Oza. Phaneuf have moved here from Canada.

Napoleon Martin has resigned his position here and has left town.

Horodore Fregeau has returned from a three weeks' stay at Mason Island.

John Dunse of Bakersfield, Cal. is visiting his parents on South Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Kyle have returned after passing a week at Watch Hill.

Miss Robina Burgess and William

Burgess are passing a few days at Fishers Island.

Walter Lees of New Bedford has returned after visiting William Pellitt of Merchants avenue.

This was the first German mail received for sometime past and it was much lighter than usual. There is a slight falling off in the foreign mail order business and a corresponding gain in the postal savings accounts.

John Nolan, son of the John D. Nolan the champion 50-year-old runner of Merchants avenue, expects to compete in the races at the Fairgrounds next Wednesday afternoon at the Fairgrounds race track on Tuesday and will make other visits there before the races are called.

VOLUNTOWN MAN'S TRIAL BEGUN

Ralph Douglass Accused of Beating His Horse So That It Died —Witnesses Testify to Seeing Him Use Whip and Club

On Forge Hill Road Last June—Animal Was Down

With the Colic.

The first trial of the present term of the criminal superior court was begun on Wednesday afternoon about 2:45 p. m. Ralph Douglass of Volun-town was placed on trial on the charge of beating his horse to death, the beating having been given on the afternoon of June 10, and the horse dying two days later.

After the selection of the twelve men for the jury the trial was begun before Justice Shumway with the accused defended by attorneys J. J.

Desmond and C. V. James and the state's attorney, assisted in the prosecution by Attorney James H. Hull.

The state was able to get in all its case by 4 o'clock and then rested.

Attorney James H. Hull had agreed with the lawyers for the defense not to insist on their going on with their case Wednesday, if he were able to complete the state's case.

On Forge Hill.

Perry B. Merritt, who lives on Lokont hill in the town of Voluntown, was the first witness for the state.

He said that he had known the accused since he was a small boy. On June 10, 1914, he was on the way home from Rockville, R. I., with Frank Watson, he saw Douglass at Forge

Hill with a horse about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. An open pasture was in the road and Mr. Douglass and his wife were there. A black mare lay on the ground and Douglass was standing over her. He saw Douglass use a whip and a club on the horse and he heard him say that he was going to kill the horse. He saw Douglass use the whip and club on the horse and he saw Douglass say that he was going to kill the horse. He saw Douglass use the whip and club on the horse and he saw Douglass say
